

Now Hiring: Elderly & Disability Benefits Specialist

The Aging & Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Florence County is seeking applications for an Elderly & Disability Benefits Specialist. This position is to provide adults who are elderly or who have a disability with assistance in understanding and accessing public and private benefits, entitlements and legal rights. The position would also provide advocacy to consumers in administrative hearings and support in dealing with denied benefit appeals.

Strong candidates will have a Bachelor of Arts or Science degree (preferred in Health and Human Services), and least one year of paid experience working with elderly or disabled individuals.

This is a full-time, 35-40 hour/week, non-exempt position. Starting pay is $20-24 per hour, based on experience and is eligible for a complete benefit package.

For more detailed information and for instructions on how to apply, please visit www.florencecountywi.com or call: 715-528-4890.

Florence County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.