Florence County Legislative Advisory Committee
Tuesday, Dec. 4 2018– 9:00 a.m.
2nd Floor Conference Room, Courthouse, Florence, WI

Call to Order: The meeting was called to order by Chairperson Ed Kelley. Members present: Ed Kelley, Holly Stratton, Larry Neuens, Ken Davis, and Ron Yadro. Absent: Fred Erwin. Also attending was Sherriff Dan Miller. Approval of Agenda: On a motion made by Larry Neuens, seconded by Holly Stratton and voted unanimous, the agenda was approved as posted. Minutes: It was moved by Larry Neuens and seconded by Ken Davis to approve the minutes of the October 2, 2018 meeting as printed. Motion carried.

Department and Partner Agency/Organization Recommendations:

School Legislation: Ben Niehaus School Superintendent was unable to attend the meeting. Supervisor Stratton expressed her continued concern about the cost of open enrollment to Florence County taxpayers. Larry Neuens stated he received a tour of the school renovation and that he was impressed with how very well it was done.

Town Concerns/Recommendations: None

Judicial and Public Safety:

Court Appointed Attorneys Paid by Counties and Public Defenders Hourly Rate: Information was distributed on the WCA platform on this. It was moved by Ron Yadro and seconded by Ken Davis to table to the January meeting for more information. Motion carried.

Body Cameras on Law Enforcement Officers: Sheriff Dan Miller was in attendance and discussed his concerns with proposed legislation with regards to manpower and editing computer equipment that would be required to fulfill the stipulations of the bill. He will be attending a meeting of WI County Sheriff's soon and will bring back more information. Ron Yadro suggested that a solution maybe to only make these videos available by court order. It was moved by Larry Neuens and seconded by Holly Stratton to table to the January meeting for more information. Motion carried.

Committee Concerns For Future Agenda Items: Items tabled at this meeting.

Next Meeting Date/Adjournment: The first Tuesday of January, which is the regularly scheduled time for the meeting, is a holiday Jan. 1, 2019. Therefore, it was moved by Larry Neuens and seconded by Ken Davis to adjourn to Monday, January 7, 2019.

Respectfully Submitted,

Edwin Kelley, Chairperson